A LITTLE NOTE FOR YOU,

You have a way of turning the ordinary into something unforgettable. With you, even the quietest moments feel full, and every little thing carries meaning. I never knew comfort could feel like a person until I found you. You are not just someone I love—you are a feeling I never want to lose. In your presence, everything feels right, like the world slows down just enough for me to breathe.

If my heart ever needed a home, it would always choose you. Because somehow, in all the chaos, you became my calm, my place, my forever.

With all my love

i love you
